

NATIONAL CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (CSR) FOUNDATION

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR REGISTRATION OF NGO AND NON-PROFIT MAKING ORGANISATIONS

In order to be eligible for CSR Registration, the NGO and/or non-profit making organization must meet the following criteria:

1. It should have a legal status. It should be registered with either the Registrar of Associations or the Registrar of Companies.
2. It requires an acceptable track record. This would include adequate and proper bookkeeping system in place; cash and bank accounts adequately controlled; spending is properly authorized and information on previous projects submitted, where possible.
3. It should have submitted certified financial statements for at least the last 2 years.
4. It should be run on non-profit making basis.
5. It should not discriminate on the basis of race, place of origin, political opinion, colour, creed or sex.
6. There should exist a good governance structure.
7. It should abide to the Charter of the National CSR Foundation.

NGOs and non-profit making organisations seeking “Registered Status” will be required to register with the National CSR Foundation and submit all documents to prove its eligibility as and when required. Failure to comply may lead to non-registration.

The council reserves the right to de-register in all cases of non-compliance.

Non registered and/or de-registered entities may make an appeal to the Council within Fifteen days of the refusal/de-registration date.
